

3 Children Get Lost In Midst Of Patriot's Day Parade; Girl, 10, Walks All The Way To Woburn

Healy Is Becoming The 'Lolly Pop King'

PHILIP H. HEALEY, above, who in his Pops Shop at 1371 Mass. Ave., Arlington Heights, already is turning out 1,000 to 1,500 dozen lollipops a week, fast is becoming known as "Lolly Pop King". There is a reason for the young ex-Coast Guardsman's business success: his pops really are good. Known as Barleypops, they're made of such pure ingredients that several doctors have recommended them. His specialty is a pop designed as to size and shape by Dr. Alfred Weller of Arlington. Made by hand, under sanitary conditions, these pops have sticks of coiled paper, so that no child can be hurt by falling while enjoying one; they're individually wrapped, and then packaged by the dozen in cellophane. Already, the Union News Agency is handling them at railroad news stands, and S.S. Pierce Co. is about to add them to their line. Mr. Healey, who learned the candy-making business from his father and has been making candy some 15 years, opened his present factory-store last September. He is in partnership with his father-in-law, Walter E. Peterson of 56 Appleton St., and their wholesale-retail volume already has grown so that they employ a staff of six.

Court Case Delays Parking Lot Plans

Development of a municipal parking lot on the Peirce & Winn property at Mass. Ave., and Mystic St., which is expected to relieve traffic congestion in Arlington Center, may be delayed several months until the town's title to the property is cleared.

Dance Slated By Hardy PTA

Arrangements have been completed for the annual spring dance sponsored by the Hardy PTA, which will be held Wednesday evening, April 28, in the Hardy School auditorium.

There will be both modern and square dancing, with music furnished by Tony Parry and his orchestra.

CARD of THANKS
The family of the late Lieutenant Daniel P. Barry wish to extend their sincere thanks to numerous organizations and hundreds of friends for their many expressions of kindness, not only at the time of his decease, but during the two months he was confined at home. Due to the similarity of names and lack of address on many of the Spiritual Bouquets, it has been impossible to acknowledge each one.

To those who did not receive individual acknowledgements, the family wishes to convey their grateful appreciation through the columns of this newspaper.

Three children got lost during the excitement of Monday's Patriot's Day celebration here and one of them—a ten-year-old girl—was found away off in Woburn. Little Shirley Lynch, 10, of 1291 Mass. Ave., set out to see the parade in Arlington Center and somehow got separated from her sisters, Florence and Edna.

Members of the family were scouting around for Shirley all afternoon. She had taken the wrong direction for home, and kept on walking, and about 5 o'clock word came that she was at the White Spot in Woburn. She was very tired and said she'd walked all the way.

Woburn police took her back as far as the Winchester Country Club, where Arlington police met them and took charge, returning the girl to her home.

The two others who got lost during the day were the two-year-old son of Mrs. Eleanor Sauremann, 7 Martin St., and Judy Burke, 3, of 10 Park Terrace.

At 11:52 Mrs. Gardner of 100 Ronald Rd., phoned police that she had a lost boy at her home. The child who could not give his name, was accompanied by a mongrel dog and both were taken to police headquarters. Shortly afterwards Mrs. Sauremann came there looking for the boy.

Little Judy Burke strayed away from her Park Terrace home about 1 o'clock, and 15 minutes after her disappearance was reported she was found at Rowan Rd., and Broadway, and taken home.

WRC Gives Flag, Staff To Town

The Francis Gould Auxiliary No. 43 Women's Relief Corps of Arlington, presented a flag and staff to the town of Arlington as part of the flag presentation ceremonies which constituted the closing function of the annual convention of the Department of Mass., Women's Relief Corps at the Hotel Bradford, on April 14, 1948.

Mrs. Ida Bowman, 299 Mass. Ave., patriotic instructor of the Francis Gould Auxiliary, arranged for the presentation which was made by the Department Patriotic Instructor. The flag and staff will be placed in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall in memory of the deceased members of the Francis Gould Post No. 36, G. A. R., of Arlington. The Director of Veterans' Services for the Town of Arlington represented the Selectmen and accepted the flag for the town.

Rabbit And Auto Meet

Fire Chief Tierney Must Retire Under 65-Year Age Limit Law, Superior Court Jurist Decides

Arlington's energetic but 73-year-old fire chief, Daniel B. Tierney, legally must be retired, Judge Thomas Dowd of Middlesex Superior Court ruled in a decision handed out Wednesday afternoon.

Judge Dowd ruled that the chief's retirement is mandatory under state laws providing for the automatic retirement of firemen when they reach the age of 65.

The decision came as the result of a court action filed by Capt. Thomas H. Egan, who recently was passed over in appointments of two deputy fire chiefs and who contended through counsel that Chief Tierney was serving beyond the legal age limit.

The next step following the Court decision, it is understood, will be for the selectmen to call a meeting and notify Chief Tierney officially of the Court's action.

Much Of Peace Won By Patriots Is Lost, Says Rev. Durocher

The peace "and much of the freedom" won for us by the patriots of 1776 has been lost as "nations engage nations, peoples vie with peoples and races contest races," the Rev. Justin G. Durocher of St. Agnes' Church declared during the Patriot's Day exercises here Monday.

Delivering the main address at the exercises at the burial ground on Pleasant St., Rev. Fr. Durocher said:

"We are here to pay our tribute of honor, love and devotion to comrades and friends, patriots, whose sacrifice was not in vain. By their sacrifice they accomplished for us independence, peace and freedom. Unfortunately today that peace and much of that freedom has been lost. Nations engage nations; peoples vie with peoples; races contest races."

"That peace so dearly won and that freedom so shortly treasured will not be recovered until that day when men are again influenced by the precepts enunciated by God Himself: Thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not commit adultery, thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife nor his goods."

"There will be no whole and lasting peace nor absolute freedom until that day when men walk again with Christ, until men again live in love and set aside their hate. Unlike these men whom we honor today other men have made sacrifices in vain."

Carney Hospital, For Which Fund Is Being Raised Here, Serves The Sick Of All Creeds

The Carney Hospital in South Boston, for which $20,000 is now being raised in Arlington in conjunction with similar drives throughout the Catholic Archdiocese, is a hospital which since 1863 has served the sick of every creed and race.

The $20,000 set as a quota in Arlington is being raised through sale of shares on a Buick super four-door sedan which will be awarded here May 29. William Toomey heads the local committee in charge of the drive, and all proceeds will go to the Archbishop Cushing Charity Fund for use in rebuilding and enlarging Carney Hospital.

The history of Carney Hospital is interesting. In 1860 Mother Seton's Sisters of Charity opened an orphanage on Shawmut Ave., in Boston. One of their benefactors was Andrew Carney, a poor boy who became a wealthy merchant and who looked

Children Are Paid To Leave Theatre After Kiddie Show

Something decidedly new in theatre management has been inaugurated at the University Theatre in Harvard Square, where children who attend the special Saturday afternoon kiddie matinee now are handed a nickel if they leave right after the children's show.

"We plan a very special show for the children, and we don't like to have them stay for the adult show," said Manager S. Sumner.

"The question was how to induce them to leave right after their own matinee, and we believe we have the solution. As the children file out, each is handed a nickel. They must leave, however, as soon as their show is over."

The children's show consists usually of cartoons, comedies and news reels.

"Most of the children don't care for 'love stuff' anyway," says Mr. Sumner, "and would, just as soon leave before the evening show. Now the nickel payment helps them to make up their minds—and it gets them home in time for their suppers. Their parents are relieved of worry—and the theatre is cleared for the evening performance."

List Areas In Which Parking Meters Are To Be Installed Here

The 300 parking meters due for delivery here about May 15 will be installed along Mass. Ave., in the central business district, and also on a number of side streets and a section of East Arlington, inquiry of Police Chief Archibald F. Bullcock this week disclosed.

The police department, under the chief's direction, has drawn up detailed plans for the meters' installation, but one formality remains to be gone through: the installations must be approved by the state board of public works.

Under a 1928 law, all traffic rules and regulations and installations in any community in the state must first be approved by the state, for the sake of uniformity.

As the plans are now drawn, meters will be placed on Mass Ave starting at Newman Way and extending to Central St., with installations also on both sides of Broadway from Franklin St., to Medford St.

A few meters will be placed on streets just off Mass. Ave., such as Alton St., Franklin St., Medford St., Water St., Court St., Central St., as well as on Pleasant St.

In East Arlington, they are to be installed on the South side from Orvis Rd., to Melrose St., and on the north side from water St., to Marathon St.

Police Chase Nets 4 Boys In Stolen Jeep

Two Arlington police cars joined Friday night in chasing a jeep stolen in Somerville and being driven through Arlington by four juveniles.

The first police car gave word to headquarters at 10:45 p. m. that it had taken up the chase, and this was radioed to a second car and also to Somerville police.

The stolen jeep finally was overtaken on Boston Ave., in Medford, and the four boys brought back to headquarters here and booked. Later, they were turned over to Somerville police along with the pilfered jeep.

8 Windows In Schools Smashed

School windows suffered heavily from stone-throwing boys over the holiday weekend.

Two windows were reported broken at the high school, four at the junior high schools and two at Hardy School.

Report also was made to police that boys have been removing shingles from the boys' locker room building at Spy Pond Field.

Young Wife Picks Up Her Phone, Identifies Radio Program Voice After 58 Failed; Awarded $295

Mrs. Robert Brittan, a young housewife of 46 Westminister Ave., picked up her phone Tuesday evening and earned $295. Mrs. Brittan was called by station WCOP and asked to identify a "mystery voice", which had been played on a recording just before—on Ranny Weeks' Record Rack program, 6:30 to 7.

"That was the voice of Stan Shaw, one of your own announcers," said Mrs. Brittan.

"Right...and you've earned $295," was the pleasant rejoinder.

A total of 58 other persons had been called at random, out of the Greater Boston phone directory, before Mrs. Brittan's phone rang and she copped the award by furnishing the correct identification.

The persons whose voices are recorded on WCOP's "mystery" program are always members of the station's personnel. Five dollars is offered when a new voice is played: five persons are phoned to every day, and every time the award goes up $5—until someone gives the right answer.

Mrs. Brittan, who has a 19-months-old son and whose husband is a driver for Jordan Marsh, appeared on WCOP's program Wednesday night to collect her $295.

And it was a trip to town she didn't at all mind taking.

Faints, Falls To Floor In Post Office

Suffering a fainting spell, Mrs. Sven Bengon, 83, of 151 Washington St., fell to the floor at the post office on Court St. Friday noon, injuring her head.

Postal employees summoned the police ambulance and Mrs. Bengon was removed to Symmes Hospital, where she was treated.

'The Duchess' Is Resplendent With Brand New Equipment

Redecorated and re-equipped, The Duchess, popular roadside spot at 21 Summer St., just off Mystic St., has launched upon another busy summer season that promises to outdo in business volume any previous period in its history.

Karl Ernest, who has successfully operated The Duchess since July, 1946, is rightly proud of the new equipment he has just had installed—including new booths and a new soda fountain and counter.

This equipment marks a new era in the operation of the business, for whereas in the past customers at The Duchess have been served at windows, they may now enjoy their choice of either indoor service or they may—if they wish—get their orders and take them to their cars outside.

Mr. Ernest's policy always has been to provide good service, and to handle only the choicest in food,

AMVETS In Session Here

An organization and business meeting of the recently-launched Arlington Post No. 20 of the Amvets was held last night, Wednesday at town hall.

Commander Edward L. Reilly presided, and scheduled speakers included State AMVETS Commander Charles Allen, the AMVETS' housing administrator William V. Ward of the A. F. of L., President James P. Reilly of Local 602 in Cambridge School Teachers' Association.

Boy Athlete Is Hurt At H. S. Field

A Haverhill high school boy suffered a back injury while engaged in a scrimmage game Friday at Peirce high school field here.

The boy, Russell Chase 18, was removed from the field to Symmes Hospital in the police ambulance, and after being treated was taken to his home by the Haverhill coach.

Amos King Dies At 77

Funeral services for Amos King of 10 Marion Rd., who up to his retirement 12 years ago had been with the Metropolitan Ice Co., in Cambridge 35 years, were held Wednesday at the Saville Chapel with Rev. W. Harold Deacon of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Cambridge, officiating. Burial followed in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Mr. King died at his home Monday at the age of 77. He was a native of Maine, and had made Arlington his home more than 50 years.

He is survived by his wife; a son, Arthur, of Cambridge; a daughter, Miss Lena King, at home and two grandchildren.

Few Local Candidates On Party Ballots For Primary Here Tuesday

With the exception of town committee candidates, only one local candidate appears on the Republican ballot and two on the Democratic slate for the Presidential Primaries to be held here next Tuesday.

The single GOP candidate, Clara F. Roberts of 151 Mass. Ave., is on the slate of seven candidates for election as alternate delegates to the Republican National Convention. No local names appear among the seven candidates for election as delegates.

On the Democratic ballot which is much more crowded by reason of rival slates, three separate groups of candidates appear. In both the first and second groups, there are 16 aspirants for delegates and 16 for Alternate delegates—with no Arlington names.

In the last Presidential Primary in 1944, only 707 votes were cast in Arlington polling places.

The third group, which has 12 running for delegates and 13 as alternates, includes in the latter classification the name of Lawrence Corcoran of 19 Wollaston Ave.

A second Arlington resident on the Democratic slate is Luke A.

Manning of 145 Gray St., running for delegate from the Sixth Congressional District.

On both slates a shortage of candidates for town committee is evident. The Republican have 34 candidates for 35 permissible committee posts; the Democrats have 23.

Pack 13 Is Praised For Ticket Sale

The monthly meeting of Boy Scout Pack 13 was held at the Junior High School West last Friday. Members of Pack 86, their parents and the Pack Committeemen special guests. Cubmaster George Lemons, presided. A letter of commendation from the District Council chairman was read in which high praise was given to the boys of Pack 13 for selling far more tickets for the recent exposition at the Town Hall than any other scout unit, and the Cubmaster announced that the two boys who had sold the largest number would receive prizes at the next meeting.

Plans were made for participation in the confirmation ceremonies at St. James Church Monday at which the Cubs were an escort and a guard of honor to the Archbishop Pack participation in the Cub Scouts baseball league was agreed upon and about 20 boys announced their intention to go out for the team. It was also announced that those members who showed the greatest fidelity and gained the largest number of advancements would be chosen for a special camping trip to Lake Winnepesaukee during the summer vacation period.

Rev. George Everad, the popular C. Y. O. representative and spiritual director of Troop 13 and Pack 13, addressed the gathering and was given an enthusiastic reception.

Advancements were distributed to the following: Thomas Woodbury and Kenneth Leary, Wolf badges and Wolf grade silver stars, and Martin Bilafer, Lion badge and Lion grade gold and silver stars.

Nelson Bragg, the mayor of Milo, Maine, and famous quizmaster of Radio Station W. C. O. P. was then given the platform and he put on one of his screamingly funny shows.

Sheriff Louis E. Boutwell, a candidate for election to the post to which he was appointed recently by Gov. Bradford, will address the men's Class at the First Baptist Church Sunday.

Army Jet Plane Over Arlington 'Sounded Like Clap Of Thunder'

"It sounded like a sharp clap of thunder," commented one Arlington resident Monday, after the passage over Arlington of an Army P-80 Jet plane which flew over Paul Revere's route to contrast the days of 1775 with the speed of 1948.

The jet plane rocketed from Boston to Lexington in one and a half minutes. It took Revere just 100 times that long to jog over the route by horse.

Forwarned that the jet plane would make the dash, many in Arlington sharpened their ears to hear it and craned their necks to see it.

None could be found afterward however who claimed to have actually seen it dart across the skies. Those who heard it—or thought they heard it—found no sign of the plane which was travelling so fast that it was miles over the town before the sound of its passage could be heard.

Congratulations to Francis Rockett, who has been accepted at Andover Prep School as a result of examinations taken there. He plans to take his senior year at this school and then go on to college.

Shedd - Bondi

The bride was given in marriage by her brother James A. Shedd and wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a train and a tiarra of white satin with a finger tip veil she carried a prayer book with white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Paula Shedd was maid of honor and Mrs. Margaret Richard was matron of honor and they wore gowns, of turquoise taffeta and carried an old fashioned bouquet.

The bride groom's brother Mr. Joseph Bondi of Arlington was best man.

The ushers were Mr. Thomas Sokolski of Cambridge a cousin of the groom and Mr. John Shedd a brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a gown of Candy stripe taffeta with a corsage of white roses and a blue hat.

10 Per Cent Increase In Phone Rates Sought

Declaring that the lag of telephone rates behind increases in general price levels is seriously interfering with plans of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company to maintain and improve its service, the Telephone Company today (April 21) filed with the Department of Public Utilities a revised schedule of rates and charges estimated to yield an annual increase of about $10,000,000 or approximately 10 per cent in

Sprains Ankle
Olympia Dukakis, 16, of 29 Russell St., a member of the Arlington Youth Association rifle team, tripped and injured her ankle on the police station steps, while leaving the rifle range there Friday night. She was taken home by one of the instructors.

The groom's Mother wore a gown of light blue lace with a corsage of yellow roses and daisies and a blue hat.

After a wedding trip to Canada Mr. and Mrs. Bondi will make their home in Arlington as Mr. Bondi is an Arlington Fireman and a veteran of World War II.

telephone revenues throughout the Commonwealth.

The Company has been faced with the same kind of wage and material price increases that have been confronting all other industries during recent years. Yet when compared with what has happened to the cost of food, clothing and other miscellaneous items of living expense, the overall price of telephone service to Massachusetts customers has not increased proportionately and, in fact, has risen only 5 per cent during the last 23 years.

Increased cost of operation because of rises in general price levels throughout New England has been one of the Company's biggest problems since the end of the war, and the situation has become all the more difficult because expenses have been increasing more rapidly than revenues. This is evidenced by the fact that in 1947, Massachusetts telephone expenses including taxes have jumped by 90 per cent over 1940, while telephone revenues for the same period have increased by only 70 percent. Outstripping revenues in this manner, rising wage costs have been the largest single factor in the steady increase in telephone expenses. The impact of wage costs in the Company's operations during the postwar period is indicated by the fact that in 1947 a total of 53 cents out of each revenue dollar was devoted to the operating expense payroll compared with 43 cents of each dollar in 1945.

To remedy this situation in part, the Company was authorized to make effective last August an emergency rate revision which increased telephone revenues in Massachusetts by approximately 5 per cent. These rates, which increased charges for residence service by 25 cents per month and for business service by 50 cents per month with a slight increase in measured units, have been the only upward revision of telephone rates in the Commonwealth since 1925. The present structure of rates and charges in Massachusetts is therefore substantially the same as that established by the Department of Public Utilities about 23 years ago.

The Company now finds it necessary to ask for a further increase in the price of telephone service to its Massachusetts customers. Distributed among nearly 1 1/2 million telephones, and applied to all the various types of service the Company offers, the proposed increases are both just and reasonable. They represent much less of an increase than has taken place in the costs of most commodities and services.

In Massachusetts the growth in telephone since 1941 has been 503, 783, or 55 per cent and almost two thirds of these new stations were added since the end of the war. The fact that the number of Massachusetts telephones is now approaching 1 1/2 million and is equal to more than all the telephones served by the Company in its entire territory in 1941, is an indication of the tremendous demand for telephone service in recent years, as well as an indication of the key position held by the Massachusetts area in the Company's overall operations.

It is the Company's responsibility to provide all potential customers with telephone service, to give a high grade of service to existing customers and to plan for better service in the future. While telephone growth in recent years has exceeded anything seen heretofore, more than 150,000 Massachusetts people, because of insufficient telephone facilities are receiving service on a party-line basis and are still required to wait for us to fill their orders for lines with fewer parties on them. Also, more than 26,000 Massachusetts people who have applied for service are still without it.

on his money as a trust from God to be employed for the good of his neighbors.

In 1866 the grey-haired bearded stocky old Irishman, in tall beaver hat and frock coat of Civil war days, took the stage coach to South Boston and purchased a house on the hill near Thomas Park, which he gave to the Sisters of Charity.

On that green hill in South Boston, where Washington's patriots built the foundations of American liberty, Mother Seton's Sisters of Charity operate Carney Hospital. The hospital has become old and inadequate to meet the needs made upon it, however, and Archbishop Cushing months ago decided that one of his primary objectives would be to rebuild the hospital and add to it.

SHOPPING WITH CONNIE

GREAT EXPECTATIONS you have for your wedding day! Everything must proceed smoothly, every detail must be carefully arranged.

Swanson, Jewelers, 695 Mass. Ave. can offer you a wide variety of bridesmaids' gifts or gifts for the bride and groom, any one of which will be treasured long after the big day is past.

UNDERCOVER of a bright new fabric in a pattern that will best suit your spring-clean house, your old furniture, dirty tired or torn, will take a new lease on life. H. Cherny and Sons at 1042 Mass. Ave. specialize in custom-made slip-covers, whose smooth fit and excellent workmanship will see that the old chair stays disguised while your rooms take on a new personality.

EVERY DAY IN EVERY WAY, you can find a new way to add interest to your menus with doughnuts from Freddie's

Doughnuts, at 156 Mass. Ave. They are a bright spot in the lunch box, a delight at tea-time, good for dessert any day. And if you are an icebox raider, what could be better with a tall glass of milk? No matter what your taste in doughnuts, Freddie's has anticipated it - he makes fourteen different varieties.

BLUE MONDAY needn't be blue any longer, not with a new Maytag Washer. Whichever model you choose, it will provide a faster and more efficient laundering of your clothes. Besides its Gyrafoam washing action, it offers an enamel finish that will resist not only soaps but the new detergents. Another feature that we liked was the sediment trap that keeps the dirt from running back into the clothes once they are free of it. Each homemaker has certain things she wants from her washer - we suggest that she see the new Maytag at Gahn and Erickson, 448 Mass. Ave. for the answer to these needs.

TOWN AND COUNTRY will find you equally well-dressed after a trip to the Fabric Shop at 479 Nass. Ave. For casual wear, sports dresses, and smart cool dresses for gardening and marketing, their "Rogsheen", a washable rayon, reminiscent of men's shirting, is a find at $.98 a yard. It comes in lovely soft colors—blue, grey, turquoise or soft mauve striped. For town they have a selection of the new tie prints in rayon, cool and practical with their dark backgrounds, as well as being very new. The dark blues are especially nice and they come with the small figure patterns as well as some slightly larger. If you have felt that most of the tie prints were a little too high, you will welcome the news that these are only $1.39 a yard.

IT'S NOT THE SAME OLD LINE, but a new look from head to toe that you want. For a really new look, with reed-slim waist and gently-controlled curves you must have, both literally and figuratively, a good foundation. The Mary Alyce Shop, at 451 Mass. Ave., has a complete selection of foundations whose names attest to their quality and workmanship—"Maiden Form", Flexees, "Nemo", and "Real Form" to mention a few. They also have "VanRaalte" and "Vanity Fair" lingerie to complete the groundwork for your new look. Incidentally, have you seen the delectable colors that spring lingerie has blossomed forth in? We like the pale blues and the jonquil yellows.

THE SUNNYSIDE OF THE STREET and the shady will boast lawns equally green if properly seeded. R.W. Shattuck has special lawn seed for shaded lawns as well as the more usual varieties. For any kind of lawn, they recommend a really good seed like Comstock-Ferre or Burpee's. They suggest that you plant within the next few weeks to avoid both heat and weeds. As a further aid they have lawn rollers to help you have a lawn With that well-kept look. But don't forget that it's the seed that makes the lawn, and that a good quality seed gives the most attractive as well as the most permanent lawn.

We take pride in our homey rest rooms and our very modern plumbing throughout the Duchess. Plumbing was all done by the boys from our neighboring City. Yep, we mean Medford and of course the concern was none other than the General Plumbing and Heating Company.

Workmen 'Fix' Bank Burglar Alarm, But Keep The Cops Busy

One mistake was understandable, but when workmen accidentally set off the burglar alarm at the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank TWICE Friday night, the police asked them if they couldn't be just a bit more careful.

When the alarm went off at 9:55 p. m., men who had been working on the system explained to officers who rushed to the scene:

"It was a mistake; the system is defective, and we're trying to fix it."

Then, at 10:34, the same alarm once more sounded its blatant warning. This time, the workmen promised it wouldn't happen again.

Another false burglar alarm came Monday, at 5:56 a. m., from Bayburn Cleaners, 1 Broadway, where workmen opened a vault door without remembering to first shut off the alarm.

A. H. S. DRAMATISTS EARN "VERY GOOD" RATING.

The Massachusetts Drama Festival was held during the week-end of April 16 at Gloucester, Arlington was present with other towns and cities to participate in activities. A fine cast of A. H. S. thespians presented B. V. Dryer's "John Doe" and thus earned for itself the rating of "very good". A. H. S. dramatists were second only to those of Revere and Hingham whose superior ratings entitle them to take part in the New England Festival.

In the cast of "John Doe" were Grace Mayberry as Ruby; Robert Lennon, the priest, Paul Wilkins, Jesse; Phil Johnson, Jimmy, the mechanic; Frank Vento, the title role, John Doe; Dick Cavicce, Dr. Arthur Neumann; and Donald Green, Lawyer Petti. Richard Sullivan was the stage manager and Mrs. Matthews, Miss Manning, and Miss Horigan the efficient directresses. Paul Wilkins distinguished himself and his school with his extraordinary portrayal of Jesse, the negro, for which he received a certificate of special commendation.

From Friday afternoon, when A. H. S., participants arrived at Gloucester until Saturday evening when they left the townfolk showed them a true spirit of hospitality by sharing their homes. Saturday's meal were served at the high school lunch room, with dancing after supper and a party that evening at Essex which most of the Arlington boys attended. All those present spent a most enjoyable week-end on the North Shore, complemented by their successful presentation of "John Doe".

On Thursday and Friday of last week tryouts were held for the G. A. A. Amateur Show on April 28. Singers, with various styles and selections to offer, will be predominant on the annual program that always discloses the talent of A. H. S. students.

Arlington High School is enjoying its April vacation this week.

Students and teachers will return to their school-time activities Monday, April 26.

JOSEPH HEFRON

There's a senior lad at school with a pleasant, easy going personality that doesn't disclose his future ambition—to study law. He's Joe Hefron who has recently completed exams for anticipated admittance to B.C. next fall.

Joe is eighteen and a faithful Chronicle worker. During the past year he has offered his impressions of jazz for this school paper. This jazz hobby is responsible for his extensive collection of records—especially old jazz renditions. He claims that "Jazz Me Blues" is his "national anthem".

For sports he chooses baseball as his favorite. Hockey and tennis follow, the A.H.S. tennis team being one of his school activities..

If Joe follows through with that ambition to become a lawyer, there are six years of hard work ahead. The best of luck to him!

On April 10, ten members of the high school student council attended the Eastern Massachusetts Division of Student Councils' semi-annual meeting, held at Woburn High School. The Arlington group, headed by Jayne Walworth (president of A. H. S. council), Lillian Reese, Lois Hart, Jill Fraser, Caryl Cadario, Millie Carlson, Leo Clancy, Cosmo Stefanie, Anthony Patton, and Robert Roth, enjoyed itself from 10:00 a. m. until 5:00 p. m., participating in the scheduled events of the day. Most important on the agenda were individual meetings, devoted to discussion of student council activities, a turkey dinner, served by the Town Line caterers, a talk by Mr. T. H. McGowan on opportunities for the high school student of today and prejudices of this day and age, musical entertainment, provided by Woburn High School students, and general dancing.

Historical Society Will Observe 50th Birthday

The 50th anniversary of the founding of the Arlington Historical Society will be celebrated at a dinner next Tuesday, April 27, at the First Congregational (Unitarian) Church.

Following the birthday dinner there will be a special program of music. Pictures of the Arlington of 50 years ago will be shown, and two plays will be presented. The cutting of a birthday cake will be one of the celebration's highlights. All this week, the society's Jasp on Russell House, at Jason St. and Mass. Ave., is open to the public from 10 to 1 and 3 to 5, with a special exhibition of memorabilia of 50 years ago.

ing were in the hands of Herbert Rogers, assisted by Whitman Hall, William G. Porter, and Rodney Sage.

The following awards were made: Silver arrows to Stephen Rogers, Lane Porter, Michael Kramer, Harry Adamian, Herbert Lambert, Teddy Mansfield. Gold Arrows to John Snow, Richard Gassett, Kenneth Lovering, John Lane. Den Chief's Cord was presented to Vincent Burns of Den No. 1. Boy Scouts of Troop 8 assisted in serving of the dinner.

Cub Pack 43 Celebrates 5th Birthday

Boy Scout Cub Pack 4, sponsored by the Parmenter P. T. A., celebrated its fifth anniversary last week at the First Parish-Unitarian Church.

This was the Pack's first venture and proved a big success. Approximately 130 Cubs, parents, and guests enjoyed a dinner served by Drake's and an evening of entertainment provided by Richard Caldwell, magician, and movies.

Invocation was given by Rev. John Nicol Mark, introduced by the toastmaster, Carl Gassett. George Kramer, chairman, welcomed the gathering and on behalf of Pack 4 presented corsages to the Den Mothers, Mrs. Helen Ferrer, Mrs. Gregory Mardigan, Mrs. Herbert O. Rogers, Mrs. Andrew J. Smith, Mrs. John G. Snow, Mrs. Harold Holbrook, Mrs. John Hickey, Mrs. George Beardsley.

The Cubmaster, Carl Gassett, introduced Richard Talcott, District Commissioner for Cubbing, of Sacohem Council, who made the presentation to the new Charter for the coming year.

The arrangements for the evening were in the hands of Herbert Rogers, assisted by Whitman Hall, William G. Porter, and Rodney Sage.

Girl Skater Runs Into Car; Unhurt

Mary Burke, 12, of 72 Winter St., had a close escape from injury Friday noon while roller skating on Winter St. near Broadway. When James J. Rourke of 28 Marshall St. saw the girl skating into his car he brought the machine to a jolting halt. Mary fell against the car's right front wheel, but the car had come to a standstill and she was not hurt.

SPECIAL CHILDREN'S MATINEES THURS. FRI. SAT. APR. 29, 30, MAY 1.

Due to the fact that Walt Disney's "BAMBI", a picture that many of our patrons will want their children to see, is on the same program with "To The Ends of the Earth", a picture which we do not particularly recommend for children, we will start our program on Thursday, Friday and Saturday at one fifteen showing "Speaking of Animals" and a Bugs Bunny cartoon so that they may enjoy Walt Disney's "BAMBI" and the News and leave before the showing of "To The Ends of the Earth".

No advance in price—but a five cent refund will be given to each child who leaves the theatre before the start of "To The Ends of the Earth".
